If you require further information about the wide range of products and services available from Ulster Bank, please contact your branch. We're always pleased to help.

You should also read our leaflet Personal Banking Terms and Conditions for detailed conditions on the operation of your account.

2. Our commitment to you

At Ulster Bank, we try to conduct our business in a fair and reasonable way and want our relationship with you to be based on confidence and trust. We will endeavour to clearly explain how your accounts and financial arrangements with us work and keep you up to date with all developments.

We'll also take all possible care with security, to protect your accounts against fraud or misuse at all times.

The Bank observes a strict duty of confidentiality about your financial affairs. We will not disclose details of your accounts or your name and address to anyone else, other than to any confidentially appointed agents acting on our behalf, except in the four cases permitted by law. These are where:

- We are legally compelled to do so
- There is a duty to the public to disclose
- Our legitimate interests require disclosure
- Disclosure is made at your request or with your consent

3. Fees and interest

All our branches display the interest rates payable on our personal savings accounts and fees and interest chargeable on personal current accounts. More details are contained in our leaflet A Guide to Personal Accounts Fees and Interest which is available from any Ulster Bank branch.

You can also find out about our fees and interest rates by:

- Clicking on our website www.ulsterbank.ie
- Dropping in to your local branch to talk to our staff

Please do not hesitate to ask any member of staff in your local branch if you wish to have further explanation of fees or interest.

4. Debit Cards

serviceCARD and debitCARD

Both these cards enable you to:

- Pay for goods and services at home, abroad and online wherever you see the Visa logo[^].
- Request cashback when making a purchase at a number of retailers such as Supermarkets.
- Withdraw cash at Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) at home and abroad wherever you see the Visa logo^{*}.
- Avail of Apple and Android Pay using an eligible Apple or Android device to make payments in shops or In apps with a single touch.
- In addition, serviceCARDS are contactless meaning you can tap your card for low value transactions up to €30 where you see the contactless symbol, instead of using chip & PIN.

cashCARD (Only available on Savings Accounts)

The cashCARD enables you to:

- Withdraw cash at ATMs at home and abroad wherever you see the Visa logo^{*}.

[^] We apply a foreign-exchange fee of 1% of the transaction value with a minimum of €0.25 and a maximum of €6. You will also be charged 1% of the transaction value with a minimum charge of €0.25 and a maximum charge of €6.

^{*} We apply a foreign-exchange fee of 1.5% of the transaction value (excluding withdrawals within Europe or Royal Bank of Scotland Group ATM located in the following regions - Ulster Bank in Northern Ireland, NatWest in England and Wales and RBS in Scotland) you will also be charged 2% of the value of your cash withdrawal with a minimum charge of €3 and a maximum charge of €12. This does not include any additional fees that a merchant or cash machine owner may impose on the customers for using this service.

Government Stamp Duty

A Government Stamp Duty charge of €0.12 is applied to each domestic cash withdrawal made at an ATM. The total fee paid per annum per card is capped at €2.50 on ATM only cards and €5 on combined ATM and debit cards, and is applied annually in January.

Full details on serviceCARDS, debitCARDS and cashCARDS are available from any branch or visit www.ulsterbank.ie.

Card Care: To help prevent fraud and protect your accounts, it is essential to take care of your chequebook, passbook, cards, Personal Identification Number (PIN) and other security information, by following the information given below:

- Do not keep your chequebook and cards together.
- Keep your card safe and your PIN, password and other security information secret.
- Do not allow anyone else to use your card or tell anyone your PIN or password.
- If you change your PIN choose your new PIN carefully.
- Try to remember your PIN and password.
- Never write down or record your PIN or password and destroy notice of your PIN as soon as you receive it.
- Keep your card receipts and other information about your account safe.
- Take care when storing or getting rid of account information e.g. use a shredder, as people who commit fraud use many methods like 'bin raiding'.
- You'll find the Banking and Payments Federation Ireland (BPF) website www.bpfi.ie a helpful guide on what to do if you suspect card fraud.

If any of your Ulster Bank cards or chequebook are lost or stolen, take the following steps:

- For Credit Cards (Mastercard) call 1890 924 258 or +44 1268 500813 from abroad.
- For Debit and all other cards call 1800 245 399 or +44 131 549 8186 from abroad.

In general, if you contact us as soon as possible after you discover the loss, you will not have to pay for any amounts that are subsequently taken from your account. However, you might have to pay if you've acted with gross negligence, e.g. if you have recorded your PIN on your card.

Lines are open 24 hours per day, 7 days per week (except Bank Holidays). Calls from mobile phones may not be free. Calls may be recorded.

5. Lodging money to your account

To lodge cash or cheques to your account, simply complete a paying-in credit slip. The cashier will brand and initial the completed counterfoil and you should retain this for your records. You'll find a number of these pre-printed slips in your cheque book (if applicable).

The pre-printed slips are completed as follows:

Date 24 May 2005
Destination Branch Ulster Bank
Sort Code 98 00 00
Number of cheques in lodgment 2
Title of Account ABC Ltd.
Account No. 12345678
Signature of person lodging into account
Grand Total £ 430 50
Total Cash Lodged 50
Total Cheques Lodged 00

A Lodgement/paying-in book (pre-printed with your account details) is available on request and lodgements of credits can be made at any branch.

Lodgements can also be made through other banks, although these may be subject to a charge by the bank in question.

You can also:

- Pay in cash with a pre-printed barcoded paying-in slip or your Debit Card at any An Post.
- Make cheque deposits with a pre-printed barcoded paying-in slip at a number of An Post outlets.
- Send cheques (but not cash) directly to your Ulster Bank branch by post with a completed paying-in credit slip.
- Arrange to have funds paid directly to your account by the person paying you the money.
- Arrange for your salary to be paid directly into your current account which could save you a lot of time.

To enable anyone to lodge money to your account, e.g. your employer, all you have to do is pass on your bank details by either giving them a pre-printed credit slip or your branch address, sort code, the full title of your account and your account number. You can find all this information on your cheque book, or in the papers given to you when you opened the account (if applicable).

6. Available balance

Whenever you lodge cash or an Ulster Bank cheque to your account at an Ulster Bank branch, the amount lodged may be available for immediate withdrawal, the lodgement is included for calculating interest from the same day. As part of our commitment to our customer service, from time to time, we may amend the clearing cycle on individual transactions. Please refer to the Personal Banking Terms and Conditions leaflet for more information.

When you lodge a non-Ulster Bank cheque into your account we need to clear it. In other words we have to obtain payment from the bank or the person or business that issued the cheque.

Normally in applying the central clearing cycle it takes 3 business days for a cheque to be received at the other bank for payment. This is known as clearing a cheque. If the cheque does not clear this means that it has not been paid by the bank on which it is drawn. It is possible that news of its non-payment may not reach us for 6 business days or more.

Cheques paid in at some financial institutions or agents, (e.g. the Post Office), may take longer to arrive at the other bank for payment.

The table below illustrates a typical example of when a cheque amount will be included for calculating interest and available for withdrawal, assuming normal business days and that payment is assured from the person or business issuing the cheque.

Cheque paid in on	Funds included for calculating interest from close of business on	Funds available for withdrawal from commencement of business on
Monday	Wednesday	Thursday
Tuesday	Thursday	Friday
Wednesday	Friday	Monday*
Thursday	Monday	Tuesday
Friday	Tuesday	Wednesday

*Funds would normally be available for withdrawal at an ATM from Saturday

The entire balance of your account may not always be available for withdrawal. For example, a cheque you've lodged may not yet be cleared, or a direct debit needs to be paid. You can easily find out how much money is available to you for withdrawal (i.e. your available balance) at an Ulster Bank ATM, through Anytime Telephone Banking on 1850 424 365 (from abroad + 353 1 804 7475) or Anytime Internet Banking at www.ulsterbank.ie/anytime (you must be registered to access Anytime Banking). Alternatively, you can talk to your branch.

7. Cheques

Chequebooks

If your current account and financial circumstances give you access to a chequebook, we will provide you with one.

- It gives you access to your funds and enables you to pay for goods and services without carrying large amounts of cash.
- It's one of the safest ways to send payments by post and provides you with a record of what has been paid.
- It's another way for you to make payments or withdrawals from your account.

A new chequebook can be issued on request at any Ulster Bank Cash Machine, through Anytime Telephone Banking on 1850 424 365 or Anytime Internet Banking at www.ulsterbank.ie/anytime (you must be registered to access Anytime Banking) unless you receive one automatically.

Alternatively, contact your branch. They can also order a credit book for you, pre-printed with your account details.

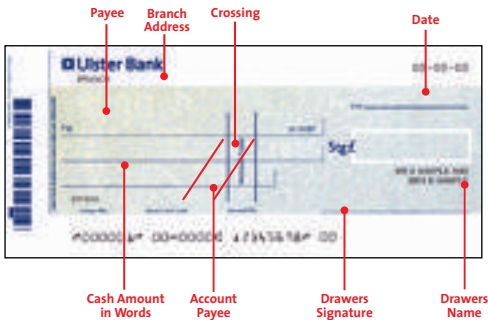

6 steps to writing a cheque:

- 1 On the line marked Pay write the name of the person or firm you wish to pay using a ballpoint pen or permanent ink.
- 2 On the line beneath it write the amount in words.
- 3 In the box beside the euro sign, complete the amount in figures.
- 4 Write the payee's name and the cheque amount (both words and figures) as far as possible to the left in the space provided. Drawing a line through the remaining space beside the amount ensures that no extra words or figures can be inserted.
- 5 Sign and date the cheque using your normal signature, a specimen of which will be held at your branch.
- 6 Then complete the cheques issued record in your cheque book.

*Automated service open 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Customer Service Advisers available Monday to Sunday 8am–10pm (except Bank Holidays). Calls from mobile phones may not be free. Calls may be recorded.

To help prevent fraud when posting a cheque, it's sometimes useful to write extra information about the person you're paying on the reverse of the cheque. For example, if you're paying a large organisation such as the Revenue Commissioners, specify the name of the account you want the cheque paid into. If paying into a bank, write the name of the account holder on the cheque.

Check out the illustration below for steps on how to complete a cheque.

Crossing a cheque

For added protection against fraud, all cheques are pre-printed as crossed. This means that only the person to whom the cheque is made payable can lodge the cheque to their account.

Stopping a cheque

If you want to stop a cheque, for example if it has been lost, you can do so provided it has not already been debited to your account. To stop a cheque, contact your branch immediately and give them:

- Your account number
- The cheque number
- Cheque amount
- Name of the payee
- Date on the cheque

You will then need to confirm these details in writing. In normal circumstances, we need your instruction to cancel a payment at least one working day before the item is debited from your account. It may not be possible to cancel payments if you do not give enough notice of your decision to cancel.

There is a charge for stopping a cheque, which is detailed in A Guide to Personal Accounts Fees and Interest. You'll be advised of the charge amount when you ask us to stop a cheque.

Unpaid cheques

You should be aware that even though a cheque is normally considered paid after six working days and funds relating to it may be available for withdrawal, the cheque itself can still be returned unpaid by the bank on which it's drawn. You should only withdraw the amount of a cheque if you are satisfied that it will not be returned unpaid. If you withdraw the funds and the cheque is subsequently returned to us unpaid by the bank of the person or business that issued the cheque, we will withdraw the amount of the cheque from your account and will send you the cheque advising the reason for its return on an accompanying advice. It is then up to you to contact the person or business that issued you with the cheque to discuss the reason for return.

Out-of-date cheques

A cheque should be presented within six months after the date of issue or it will not be paid. In this case, it will have to be returned to the person who issued it and a fresh cheque provided, or the date amended and initialled by them.

Covering cheques

When you issue cheques or other payment instructions on your account (for example, a direct debit or a serviceCARD transaction) you must ensure that you have enough money in your account to cover these items whether through an overdraft facility or credit balance. You also need to allow for any cheques or other payment instructions lodged to your account that have not yet cleared. Where there are insufficient funds in your account, the items may not be paid and additional fees incurred. Fees are detailed in our leaflet A Guide to Personal Accounts Fees and Interest available from any Ulster Bank branch.

Note: It is extremely important that you keep your chequebook in a safe place and that you always keep it separate from your serviceCARD. Any loss or theft of your chequebook or serviceCARD must be reported to us immediately.

8. Overdrafts

Personal current accounts should be operated in credit, or within an agreed overdraft facility. Overdrafts are not permitted on savings accounts.

Lending criteria, terms and conditions apply. You must be 18 or over to apply for an overdraft or other form of credit. Security may be required. Overdraft is repayable on demand. The overdraft facility may not be exceeded without the prior permission of Ulster Bank. If you exceed your overdraft limit, surcharge interest in addition to debit interest will be applied on any amount over the authorised limit, other charges may also apply.

9. Statements

Regular statements will help you to manage your finances simply and responsibly. Ulster Bank statements itemise every transaction passing through your account (since the previous statement) and can help you to compare them with your own records.

You can decide how often you wish to receive a statement, though this will normally depend on the volume of transactions. If you do not choose your statement frequency, you will receive a statement once a month, unless Terms and Conditions state otherwise for your account type.

Always check your statements and let us know if you think anything is wrong, and once checked, file them in a safe place, just in case you want to refer to any transactions at a later date.

Outside your normal statement dates, the balance of your account and a mini-statement facility, which shows the last 6 transactions on your account, is available at any Ulster Bank ATM, 24 hours a day, 7 days per week.

10. Joint accounts

- If your account is a joint account, your liability will be joint and several with the other account holder(s). This means that each of you will be individually liable for all debts on the account and you'll also be liable together.
- When you open your account, you'll be asked to specify whether all, some, or just one of you needs to sign cheques and other authorisations for withdrawals from the account. Unless you have indicated otherwise, any one of the joint account holders may sign such authorisations for withdrawals from the account.
- We will send statements and all correspondence to the address of the first named party on a joint account unless otherwise specified.
- If one of the account holders on a joint account dies, please let us know and we will remove their name from the account. The account will continue to operate as a sole account, and we will accept instructions from the surviving account holder(s), unless instructed differently by written authority on the operation of the account.

11. Additional Services

We can offer you a wide range of banking and financial services, from loan facilities to deposit accounts, residential and commercial mortgages and credit cards, and all on competitive terms. Ulster Bank Financial Services can give you advice on all aspects of life assurance, retirement planning and investments.

Choose a simpler way to pay

You may be able to set up a Direct Debit or standing order on your account if you have regular bills to pay electricity, rent, mortgage or finance instalments so you don't have to remember when bills are due and can avoid writing and sending out cheques on a frequent basis. You can also set up a Direct Debit or standing order to make regular transfers into a savings account.

12. Direct Debits

A Direct Debit can be fixed such as an insurance policy premium, or variable, like electricity bills for example. An organisation that is set up for a Direct Debit on your account can only take amounts which are due, and these will be advised to you in advance. In the unlikely event of an error, we will make an immediate refund to you and claim the incorrect amount back from the originator. Organisations who originate Direct Debits must meet certain criteria and membership of the Direct Debits must meet certain criteria and membership of the Direct Debit scheme is strictly controlled.

- To sign up for a Direct Debit, simply complete the instruction provided by the organisation you want to pay, and they will forward it to us.
- If you wish to amend or cancel a Direct Debit, you should advise the originator in writing, call Anytime Telephone Banking on 1850 424 365 (if you are registered for this service - from abroad + 353 1 804 7475) or call into your branch before 3pm on the Business Day before the Scheduled debit date. Cancellation at a later date will not cancel the next payment to be made, but will cancel all future payments on foot of the Direct Debit. To consent to a cancellation of a Direct Debit, You must provide us with the name of the Originator, the amount and the frequency of the Direct Debit. You are also required to notify the Originator of cancellation of the Direct Debit payment instruction. You should also check your statements to ensure that the cancellation has been made by the originator.
- If you cancel a Direct Debit using Anytime Internet Banking, you will need to allow at least three working days.
- Details of any Direct Debits will normally appear on your statement.

Note: Direct Debits are not permitted on savings accounts.

13. Standing orders

A standing order allows a direct payment from your account, for a fixed amount at regular intervals, to a third party nominated by you.

- To set up a standing order simply complete the appropriate form, available from either the third party or any Ulster Bank Branch.
- The amount and payee name of each standing order will appear on your statement.
- If you wish to amend or cancel a standing order call Anytime Telephone Banking on 1850 424 365 (if you are registered for this service - from abroad + 353 1 804 7475) or call into your branch before 4.30pm on the Business Day before the Scheduled debit date. Cancellation at a later date will not cancel the next payment to be made on foot of a standing order but will cancel all future payments on foot of the standing order. To cancel a standing order, You must provide us with the name of the Payee, amount and frequency of the standing order.
- If you cancel a standing order using Anytime Internet Banking, you will need to allow at least three working days.

Note: Standing orders are not permitted on savings accounts.

Complaints procedure

If your complaint relates to a product or service purchased online, you can contact the European Commission using their Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) platform. The ODR platform, primarily aimed at European Union (EU) cross-border disputes, is designed to help consumers resident in the EU get access to dispute resolution if they remain unhappy with the response they have received from a trader established in the EU. To use the ODR platform <http://ec.europa.eu/odr> you will need the following information: ComplaintsRI@ulsterbank.com. Please note that under current rules the European Commission will ultimately redirect your complaint to the Financial Services Ombudsman (FSO), therefore you may prefer to contact us or the FSO directly in the first instance regarding your complaint.

If you are not satisfied after following our procedures, you can ask the Ombudsman to review the complaint. You can find out more about The Financial Services Ombudsman in the leaflet available from any of our branches or online at www.financialombudsman.ie.

Alternatively you can write to:

The Financial Services Ombudsman, 3rd Floor,
Lincoln House, Lincoln Place, Dublin 2.
